

MARYLAND DEPARTMENT OF NATURAL RESOURCES
2019 APPLICATION TO PERMANENTLY TRANSFER A COMMERCIAL
STRIPED BASS PERMIT OR ALLOCATION

INSTRUCTIONS FOR PERMANENT TRANSFER:

- 1.) The transferee (person receiving permit) must fill out Section A completely.
- 2.) The transferor (person transferring permit) must fill out Section B completely.
- 3.) Transferees may receive no more than 3,000 pounds of quota, permanently, in a calendar year (share equal to 0.2%).
- 4.) Transferors may make as many transfers as they wish during the given transfer period.
- 5.) A permittee may own no more than 1% of the total Maryland striped bass allocation.
- 6.) A permittee may own no more than 5% of the total Atlantic Maryland striped bass allocation.
- 7.) This form must be certified by a notary public in order to be processed. There is not a notary public at the Tawes Building, please have this done before you turn in the form.
- 8.) Permits and allocations transferred may be used in the Chesapeake Bay only or the Atlantic only. Transferees may use any legal gear within the gear season, as long as the transferee holds the appropriate license. HLI license holders may only harvest their allocations with a hook and line.
- 9.) For each portion of 350 pounds permanently transferred in season, 100 tags, unbroken, in a sealed bag must be given to the transferee.
